1. (Original) A method of handling vehicle window warranty claims, the method comprising:

a customer taking a vehicle having window damage to a retailer;

A2 a glass expert and/or technician at the retailer visually analyzing the window damage of the vehicle and making a determination as to whether the window damage is a result of activity by: (a) a vehicle manufacturer that assembled the vehicle, (b) a glass or window supplier that supplied the window to the vehicle manufacturer, or (c) the vehicle window being subject to impact damage from an object impacting the window;

when (a) or (b), processing a manufacturer warranty claim from the customer relating to the window in either a first manner or a second manner different than the first manner depending upon whether the glass expert and/or technician determines (a) or (b), so that the window can be replaced under the warranty; and informing the customer that the damage is not covered by the manufacturer warranty when the glass expert and/or technician determines (c).

2. (Original) The method of claim 1, further comprising:

the retailer replacing the window in instances of each of (a), (b) and (c), but the retailer ordering a replacement window from a different source when the glass expert and/or technician determines (a) as opposed to (c).

3. (Original) The method of claim 1, further comprising:

the retailer replacing the window in instances of each of (a) and (b), but a different billing and/or paying procedure being carried out depending upon whether the glass expert and/or technician determines (a) or (b).

4. (Original) The method of claim 1, further comprising:

the retailer ordering a replacement window from the vehicle manufacturer when the glass expert and/or technician determines (a) or (b), and the retailer ordering a replacement window from a window supplier different than the vehicle manufacturer when the glass expert and/or technician determines (c).

5. (Original) The method of claim 1, further comprising the retailer periodically providing the vehicle manufacturer a list of all turned away warranty claims resulting from the glass expert and/or technician determining (c).

6. (Original) The method of claim 1, further comprising the retailer providing the vehicle manufacturer a listing of warranty claim attempts differentiated by at least (a), (b), and (c).

7. (Original) The method of claim 1, further comprising the vehicle manufacturer storing warranty claims in a manner so as to differentiate between claims where the glass expert and/or technician determined (a) and claims where the glass expert and/or technician determined (b).

8. (Original) A method handling warranty claims relating to vehicle windows, the method comprising:

a customer taking a vehicle having window damage to a retailer;

at least one glass expert and/or technician at the retailer visually analyzing the window damage of the vehicle and making a determination as to whether the window damage is a result of activity by: (a) a vehicle manufacturer that assembled the vehicle, (b) a glass or window supplier that supplied the window to the vehicle manufacturer, or (c) the customer who owns or operates the vehicle where the vehicle was subjected to impact damage;

the retailer providing the vehicle manufacturer a listing of vehicles analyzed by the at least one glass expert and/or technician, the listing differentiating between windows damaged as a result of (a), (b), or (c).

9. (Original) The method of claim 8, further comprising the vehicle manufacturer storing warranty claims in a manner so as to differentiate between claims where the glass expert and/or technician determined (a) and claims where the glass expert and/or technician determined (b).

 10. (Original) The method of claim 8, further comprising the retailer ordering a replacement window from the vehicle manufacturer when the glass expert and/or technician determines (a) or (b), and the retailer ordering a replacement window from a window supplier different than the vehicle manufacturer when the glass expert and/or technician determines (c).

11. (Original) The method of claim 8, further comprising the retailer replacing the customer's damaged window with a replacement window.

12. (Currently amended) A method handling warranty claims relating to vehicle windows, the method comprising:

visually analyzing window damage of a vehicle and making a determination as to whether the window damage is a result of activity by: (a) a vehicle manufacturer that assembled the vehicle, (b) a glass or window supplier that supplied the window to the

420 vehicle manufacturer, or (c) the customer who owns or operates the vehicle where the vehicle was subjected to impact damage; and providing the vehicle manufacturer a listing of vehicles analyzed, the listing differentiating between windows damaged as a result of (a), (b), or (c).
